BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Submits for the approval of Govt a draft of addenda and Corrigenda to the M. S. Regulations embodying the changes introduced by Govt Pro. No. R 10659-60/L S 40-08-2 d. 15-6-09

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Page 30 in the Corrections sheet.

In the draft rules approved by Govt, there is the following provision:—

"When privilege leave is combined with other leave in the manner prescribed in art: 155 of the M. S. Regulations 3rd ed., the amount due may be granted irrespective of the intervals prescribed above". This provision has not been ~~not~~ embodied in the addenda sent by the Comptroller Subs Rules.

Apparently because the general rules itself provides for this. Please see the last Sentence of C.M-178 & 179 ante 29-7-9

There is no specific allusion to the ineligibility of the field Establishment to forfeiting leave on private affairs, in the file relating to G.O. of 15.6.09 In the addenda prepared by the Comptr, they are declared ineligible for these two kinds of leave. The Rev Branch is requested to state if the rules prepared by the Comptr under articles 207 & 208 are correct & if their insertion in M.S.R. may be authorised

The rules about the combined leave, quoted in the first para of the Office note, which has been omitted by the Comptroller, may be inserted in its proper place avoid misconceptions in future, although the Assistant Secretary, Financial Branch, remarks that the omission to embody the same in the proposed addenda and corrigenda is apparently due to the fact that the general rule provides for this in the last sentence of article 177 (not 178) of the Mysore Service Regulations.

When the leave rules were framed, the intention appears to have been that the Subordinate members of the Field Establishments are not entitled to furlough or leave on private affairs. This is consistent with the economical lines on which the Department is conducted, and also with the fact that even during privilege leave a portion of the pay is deducted. I am not sure if a specific declaration should be made of the ineligibility of these officials to leave of the kind in question, mentioned in articles 207 and 208 of the Mysore Service Regulations. If it be considered necessary to have it definitely stated, the addenda and corrigenda proposed by
